Course Description

This course covers the fundamentals of site valuation. Students will learn about real estate, real property interests, and the factors that affect types of value.

This course provides continuing education hours for the licensed real estate appraiser. It is intended to enhance the knowledge and effectiveness of appraisers in all license categories and is approved by the Bureau of Real Estate Appraisers for 3 hours of continuing education.

Course Objectives

After completing this course, you will be able to:

1. Recall the purpose of and designate the uses for site valuation.
2. Designate the methods appraisers use to develop site valuations.

Course Timeframe

Students must spend a minimum of 3 classroom hours* in this course. Access to specific assignments will be restricted to ensure that students accumulate the required seat time.

*A classroom hour is defined as 50 minutes for each clock hour the course is approved.

Grading/Evaluation Policy

Performance is measured by online lesson quizzes and unit exams. To complete this course successfully, students must complete: 4 Units including all reading assignments, Lesson Quizzes, and Unit Exams. A minimum passing score of 70% or better is required on all quizzes and exams. Quizzes and exams with scores below 70% must be retaken until the score meets or exceeds 70%.
